VIKINGS: In a world of their own

One of the homecoming traditions is the making of the class floats. The 1989 Homecoming theme was The Future. The juniors met in the cafeteria to decide on the float design. They chose to make a rocket, planets, stars, and the moon. Two juniors were chosen to ride the float.

Many class members worked hard to complete the float. The juniors met at Heidi Burmeister's house every day for about two hours. Most of the people enjoyed painting the stars, planets and the rocket. Although it was hard work, the junior float was a great success.

Juniors Chris Nunn and Shannon O'Toole conquer the universe with the 1989 Junior Homecoming Float.

Charity Game

The faculty challenged the girls basketball team to benefit Toys for Tots. The faculty consisted of eleven men and four women; the girls basketball team was made up of eleven girls and the girls had help from Mitch "Michelle" Uhlman, Mike "Mary Ann" Niethammer and Brian "Brenda" Sparschu.

The girls varisty basketball team now knows the real meaning of street ball; not only did the teachers throw elbows but a couple of extra points was thrown in. After running a few lengths of the court, the teachers started to show their age.

The teachers defeated the girls team; but in all fun and games, the student body knows who really won the game. — Julie LaMountain

We Get RAPPED Up In What We Do!

The stars were definitely out at this Pep Assembly, as Andrew Draper and Amy Royal showed. Thanks to them the Sophomore class placed first in the competition of lipsinking to rap music. This Pep Assembly was just one of the many that our students participated in, whether it was jumping rope and eating pie, playing basketball against the teachers, or just using our big mouths to scream the battle cry.

There was fun involved in every moment! — Jill Marino

ADMINISTRATION

"We are truly a team," stated Miss Ederer. With the important jobs that occurred daily at Swan Valley High School, teamwork was a necessity. Answering telephone calls, writing excuses, taking care of building problems and minor injuries also seemed to fall into the daily routine. "The discipline part is not the fun part of this job, but a necessary part," Mr. Cuthbertson added.

Loyalty and respect united the faculty, administration, and students again this year. "People need a certain amount of territory and I respect that," Mr. Cuthbertson commented.

"It has taken a lot of work to get to this level of understanding and it is even harder to stay here but the loyalty is there," Miss Ederer replied.

Through loyalty, respect, and a lot of teamwork the faculty, students, parents, and administration aided one another and made this once again a rewarding year. The seniors who graduated know they left not only an excellent school but a family of friends. — Lexi Orr

Mr. Syrek, Superintendent

The school board, the superintendent,Mr. Syrek, and all other administrative personel successfully met the demands of another year.

As superintendent for his second years, Mr. Syrek again managed to unite the school district in attempts to meet the requirements of every task that arose.

With this year Mr. Slade undertook new responsibilities as Athletic Director. In addition to working with Adult Education, Community Education, and Work Experience, as Athletic Director Mr. Slade was in charge of all athletic events, hiring the officials, and making sure all management jobs associated with athletics completed.

Even with all the jobs and occasional problems, the Administrative team once again pulled together and made this year productive. — Lexi Orr

READ & BEAUTIFICATION DAY
DOING OUR BEST

FOR OTHERS

Every Wednesday after school, five SVHS students helped teach some younger students from Havens Elementary. They came up with fun and exciting ways to make reading more enjoyable. They played games that involved reading skills and introduced new vocabulary.

Each volunteer worked with two or three students. Some times two groups were combined into a larger one.

On Friday, May 18th, the senior class was required to improve the Community. Many seniors planted flowers at the township office, others planted shrubs at the administration building, one group picked up trash, and yet others washed cars.

The senior class worked until noon on that cold day, and then was taken to Roethke Park for pizza donated by Dominos Pizza.

STUDENTS AND FACULTY JOIN IN THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

TOYS FOR TOTS

During fifth and sixth hours on Thursday, December 21, 1989, SV student, faculty, and administrators joined in a basketball game to benefit the Marines and their Christmas charity program Toys for Tots.

Approximately five hundred dollars was raised at this event.

The girls basketball team took the lead in the first minutes of the game but were eventually overtaken by the faculty.

The faculty won the game but the girls contested the scorekeeper as well as the rough play by the faculty. Mr. Syrek and Mr. Cuthbertson were the referees.

ACTIVITY NIGHT AND SCHOOL DANCES

FUN FOR ALL

Activity Night was March 16, 1990, and lasted from 8:00 P.M midnight. For $2.50, students watched and participated in a 3 on 3 basketball tournament, tug-of-war, mock rock, obstacle course, swimming, volleyball, and dancing. The money raised from Activity Night, $417.00, went to the Julie Hanna Trust Fund.

The winners of the boys 3 on 3 basketball tournment were J.J Waterman, Chris Nunn, and Jim Bakos. For the girls; Lori Merry, Melissa Wieneke, and Sarah Day were the winners. In the tug-of-war, it was the Freshman over the Sophomores and the Juniors over the Seniors. In the final tug-of war, it was the Freshmen over the Juniors with the Freshman winning.

The dance lasted from 10:00 P.M. - midnight. There was also a drawing for a radio which Matt McKinstry won.

There were dances almost every Friday night after the football and basketball games. Another event was the bonfire that took place on October 27, 1989, before the St. Charles football game.

Another activity was Halloween. Some students dressed up in Halloween costumes. The winners were: for the scariest costume — Tricia Kirkbride, the funniest costume — Bobbi Hill, the most original costume — Julie Greene, and the most traditional costume — Laura Burk.

CLASH OF VIKINGS

Cheerleaders dressed as nerds, flower children running around barefoot, a BeeGee's revival — WHAT HAPPENED???!!!

Why, the Clash of the Vikings, of course. The spirit week included competition among the classes in such esteemed areas as volleyball and tug-of-war. Students were also given the opportunity to dress in theme on special days. Nikki Neal said, "Cheerleaders have to dress up anyway and if you are proud of your school, it is important to express it, and I am proud."

Junior Tara Gutowski agreed, "I feel that many people have school spirit because quite a few people participated in the activities of the week. I dressed up not only for school spirit but because it was a lot of fun and something different."

NEW EXPERIENCES, NEW PEOPLE, NEW TRADITIONS
THE ADVANTAGES OF

FOREIGN EXCHANGES

Sad remembrances of the last "goodbyes" mix with excitement of adventures that lie ahead for every exchange student.

This year Swan Valley hosted two exchange students. Katja Buss from Arnesberg, West Germany, and Sayaka Torigoe from Tokyo, Japan.

Both girls came through the program Youth For Understanding. "YFU is a non-profit organization for international exchanges, which has the goal to reduce prejudice and gain world peace through the understanding between different cultures," explained Katja Buss.

Youth For Understanding has arranged exchange programs for students desiring to spend a year, semester, or summer in another country. Brady Schickinger went to Spain on such a summer program. "I lived in northern Spain near the French border," replied this junior.

Some scholarships work in conjunction with Youth For Understanding to fund exchange programs. Katja Buss came to America on a special scholarship from the government. The scholarship, the Congress-Bundestag Scholarship, awards three hundred Americans and three hundred Germans the opportunity to spend a year in the opposite country. Air fare, language study, and special trips to meet government officials are paid for. Brady Schickinger's summer exchange experience was funded by a scholarship from Eaton Corporation, where his father works. There are many other scholarships available to people who want the experience of being an exchange student.

Swan Valley first began hosting exchange students in 1974 and since then has hosted almost thirty students from other countries. On the same note, approximently three Swan Valley students have been exchange students and two more students are considering the experience for next year.

There are many advantages to being an exchange student. You learn about other cultures by living as one of the inhabitants.

Katja Buss described what she learned in America, "It's fun to get to know traditions like Prom, Homecoming, Halloween, etc. You also become more conscious of your own traditions and your own culture."

After a summer in Spain Brady Schickinger commented, "I've learned to value people and myself not as Americans, Britains, Spainards, or Japanese, etc., but as humans."

Being an exchange student was an experience that surpasses all education gained in a classroom. It required maturity, open-mindedness, and plenty of courage. It was not easy to leave home country to live in another, but the places and the people that were seen, were rewards unknown to those who have yet to experience it. — Lexi Orr

QUIZ BOWL

Tension and excitement hung in the air as the two Quiz Bowl teams faced the crowd and anxiously awaited the moderator's next question.

In the two twenty minute halves of a Quiz Bowl meet, questions were asked on a variety of topics. Subjects included current events, math, science, political history, and general knowledge.

1990 was Swan Valley's second year to participate in the Quiz Bowl. There were seven members on this year's team and the adviser was Mrs. Wujkowski.

Teamwork was essential in the Quiz Bowl Competition.

"Some people know certain areas better than others, the team must compliment each other to cover a wide variety of questions," stated first year member, Mitch Gilbert.

"We were good at encouraging each other, even after someone answered wrong," replied Bill Cuthbertson, also a first year member.

Second year Quiz Bowl team member, Kerri Meyer, summed up the importance of teamwork by saying, "You have to have a well-balanced team. You can't rely on only one or two people. You learn to trust other people."

The Swan Valley Quiz Bowl Team played their matches remarkably, losing only twice by a minute margin. The team took second place with a prize of three hundred dollars. The money will be placed in an account and used for next year's Quiz Bowl expenses. — Lexi Orr

JR/SR PROM AND AFTER PROM PARTY

MIDNIGHT IN PARIS

Everyone started to get ready early so they could look perfect. The nerves were uncontrollable. As the people arrive at the door, there was a long line for pictures. As you ventured in the door you noticed the neat decorations. The nice part about the decorations was they had little moons all over the hall with each couples names.

Everyone danced and enjoyed themselves. The night was filled with wonderful memories which will always be remembered forever. The enjoyment didn't seem to want to end, but what do you expect when you spend a Midnight in Paris.

The Las Vegas after Prom party was a huge sucess there were prizes given and games played. Many people attended the after Prom party. Brady Schickinger said, "I had a lot of fun", as did many others.

The grand prize was a $100 gift certificate from the mall. Melanie Manial won a Nintendo. The night was filled with excitment and joy. The laughs of this whole night, will be remember by all the seniors. The memories will last a life time. — Stephanie Rausch.

SENIOR TRIP

The morning of the 1990 senior trip dawned bright and early on May 30th. Sleepy-eyed seniors stumbled aboard the buses and were amazed to find three T.V.'s, a VCR, extra-comfy seats, and a wet bar consisting of hot cocoa and coffee. As if that weren't enough, Mr. C had yet another surprise for the unsuspecting teenagers: a Clint Eastwood movie marathon that included the provocative "Two Mules for Sister Sarah" and the highly acclaimed "A Fistful of Dollars". Needless to say, the captive senior class was ecstatic.

The buses arrived at Cedar Point promptly at 10:00 AM. The weather was beautiful and more than a few seniors sported sunburns at the end of the day. The new Magnum XL was given high marks as were the old favorites Demon Drop, Gemini, and the Cork Screw. Many people had caricatures done of themselves and nearly everyone loaded up on souvenirs to commemorate the day.

At 6:30 PM the seniors retired to Saw Mill Creek for some rest and relaxation. Though few people swam, many crowded into one of the four rooms rented for use to shower and get dressed. After some pre-dinner music from Brenda Pine and Cheri Thompson, the group proceeded to the banquet hall where they found a buffet table that offered everything from turkey and mashed potatoes to strawberry torte. After dinner, giftatory was announced and everyone had a good time embarrassing the nominees. The dance then commenced and the fans of rap music were pleased to find a kindred soul in the DJ that night. The senior class song "Time for a Change" was played and many seniors had a hard time fighting back the tears with the knowledge that many friends and classmates would never be seen again.

The buses left for Saginaw at 1:00 AM and arrived in the early hours of Thursday, May 31. As the students drove home, the first tiny rays of sunrise peered uncertainly over the clouds of night and wondered, like the seniors, if they were truly ready for the new dawn. — Lisa Abbott

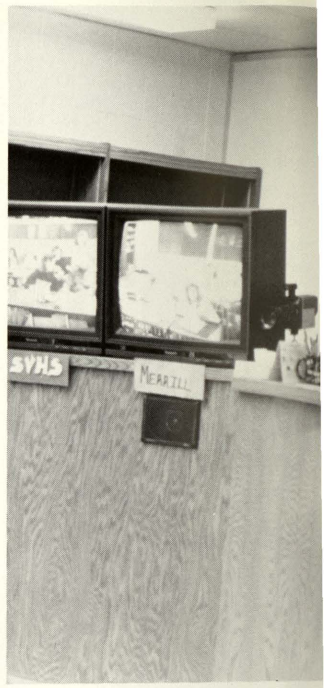
COMMUNICATIONS

EXPANDING YOUR HORIZONS



Seniors studied English Literature; juniors studied American Literature. Sophomores had one semester of English; the other semester was communications class, where they learned what career might be best suited for them. They also mastered the skills to give a speech.

Spanish I started out with an easy introduction to the language. Spanish students learned how to say hello and how are you and then they move on to counting, the alphabet, weather and vocabulary. Spanish II, III dealt with sentence structure and grammer along with more vocabulary. Mrs. Tesauro taught Spanish I, II and III. Mrs. Zimmer taught Spanish I.

French I started out determining the basics in speech and some grammer usage. French II expanded vocabulary and also introduced French history. Second year was different because French I was taught to Merrill and Hemlock students by T.V. These classes were taught by Mrs. Gehrls.

EXPERIMENTS AND CALCULATIONS

Computer Literacy along with Typing I was required to graduate from high school. Students usually took these in freshman year. There was also Computer Programing I. Students enjoyedthese computer courses. "Computers are taking over," stated Heidi Mielke. It's now more demanding then ever. Mr. Cichowski taught Computer Literecy and Programing I; Mr. Nassif, Typing.

Life Science, Physical Science, Biology I and II, Anatomy, Chemistry, and Physics What do all these mean? They introduced us to our world including our atmosphere, environment, organisms, the human body, matter and energy. "To use scientific matter you need a scientific brain," said Tricia Kirkbride. Classes and teachers were: Physics — Dr. Sanger, Chermistry — Mrs. Nassif, Biology — Mr. Schrems and Mrs. Nassif, Life Science — Mr. Schrems, Physical Science — Mr. Guilford.

When students took a math course, which one do they choose? They could pick Algerbra I and II, General Math, General Math, Geometry, Trig, and Pre-Calculus. "Math is becoming more important in today's society," said Amy Kilbourn. Teachers and classes were: Mr. Adams — Algebra I and II, Mrs. Bell — Geometry, Algebra I, and General Math, Mrs. Wujkowski — Pre-Calculas, General Math and Algebra I. — Brandi Chinery

THROUGH MUSIC, ART, AND DRAMA

SVHS Band performed in many different events including football and basketball games, Christmas and Spring Concerts, and Toronto.

Karen Frost stated that "the Chirstmas Concert is the favorite performace of the year because everyone gets in the Christmas mood." Mr. Michelson has directed the band for 14 years.

Mr. Miller's first year students learned basic skills of drawing, shading, shadowing, and perspective. In Mr. Snyder's Art I we made birdhouses and kites," stated Donn Stack. Mr. Miller's Art II students were introduced to acrylic painting. They also worked on drawing basic figures, silkscreening,and made posters for area businesses.

In Art III, students work on projects of their own choice. Many have painted with acrylics, sketched and silkscreened. — Lori Stec

Mr. Bird's drama class presented two plays. "The Sting" was presented, March 1. It took place in the late '30's and was narrated by Mindy Dennison. It was one big con pulled on Tom Porras and at the end, it was a con on the audience.

"Register Here" was a comedy production presented on May 24. It was a who done it murder mystery. The sets were designed by everyone. It took place in an old run-down inn. Inspectors Todd Rulapaugh and Jill Marino did their best to find the dreadful murderer. — Jill Marino

ELECTIVES

HOME ECONOMICS/INDUSTRIAL ART/BUSINESS

What was that smell from the Home Ec lab? Students were making cookies, Thanksgiving dinner, bunny cakes, and many delicious meal. They also made stuffed animals, sweat shirts, jams, short, and pillows.

Family relations helped prepare students for married life, even planning wedding. In child care, students learned about pre-pregnancy and pre-natal care, the birth and developement of a baby.They even had a baby shower. . Mrs. Reeder taught Home Economics, Family Relations, and Child Care.

Business department included Mrs. Butcher who taught Accounting I, Mr. Humphrey who taught Business Machines, and Mr. Nassif who taught Business Law and Accounting II.

Industrial Arts consisted of Metal I, Wood I, Advance Metals, Architectural Drawing, and Mechanical Drawing. Students designed and produced candle sticks, wood desks, stools,tables, vices, C-clamps and much more. In Architectural Drawing they prepared lay-outs of houses, and businesses. In Mechanical Drawing students drew the engine of a car. These classes were taught by Mr. Musial and Mr. Guilford. — Brandi Chinery

WITH A DIFFERENT TWIST

Some SV students elected to leave campus and attend COC and CAS for two to three hours each day. SV students who attended CAS were Brenda Pine and Kristen Wortley. Those attending COC included Roberto Berden, Mark Boehler, David Froum, Mark La Douce, Tracy Mellon, Kim Mertes, David Miller, Scott Rousseau, Bill Thomas, Chris Ulrey, and Lonnie Yancer.

Electives included Conditioning which was offered by the physical education department. Most students on the varsity teams elected Conditioning.

A few students chose to work in the library for an hour each day. Their duties included delivering audio-visual equipment, checking and shelving library books. These aides helped in the school office; they delivered daily announcements and picked up the mail from central office and sorted it.

Psychology,a very popular elective, was offered by the Social Studies Department and taught by Mrs. Burnside. Many junior and seniors elected Psychology.

Last there was the yearbook class whose members produced the nineteenth volume of VALHALLA. All class members sold advertising to the local businesses. The photographers were Katja Buss, Chris Schemm, and Leann Sparks. The staff members interviewed students, wrote the copy, designed the layouts.

THINK BEFORE YOU DRINK AND DRIVE

Students Against Driving Drunk was organized to inform students about the consequences of driving under the influence of alcohol.

Why was SADD a good idea? "It will create less drunken drivers," said SADD member Angi Williams. "More people would realize the seriousness of the situation."

Lisa Dupuis added, "I feel that it is a good cause. It can be helpful to students."

SADD members did many things to get across the message not to drink and drive. They handed out ribbons to tie on cars and painted signs. They sponsored dances and wrote poems against drinking and driving. Also there was Project Graduation where members made public announcements at graduation time on radio stations about not drinking and driving.

There were also many fundraisers sponsored by SADD. They sold carnations and balloons for Sweetest Day. Also SADD sold suckers for Easter.

Sarah Jacob summed it up by saying, "Drinking and driving is not something to joke around with. We should take it more seriously."

ACTIVITIES DE CLUB FRANCAIS

French Club activities included parties, dances, and foreign language week. The foreign language week was an excellent way to get other students involved with the languages. Rachel Johnson stated, "Being in French Club helps me get acquainted with other people in French and to get familiar with the languages."

French students also traveled to SVSU and placed second in the singing competition. The trip was very exciting because students saw other French students perform and could see how Swan Valley compared. A trip to Justine's was also offered with many members participating and enjoying the food.

Some of the French students participated in the 100 Club. The student would bring in French cuisine and different French projects. The students are very enthusiastic about the projects. Michelle Reed stated, "I joined French Club to get involved with extracurricular activities after school."

The students who were involved helped make the club grow and prosper. Stacy Sobal said, "I like French Club; you are exposed to a very different culture." The French Club was enjoyable for those who wished to learn French and to enjoy the people. French Club was definitely worth joining.

If you took Spanish and wanted to be involved in activities, you joined the Spanish Club.

"I take time to join because it is kind of fun to do things that the school organizes," said Kristina Salcedo.

Stacy Kennelly said, "I like the idea of having clubs because they are good experience and a lot of fun!"

Rick Ochoa also added, "I feel this is important because it makes me feel important. I think it's good to be a part of something."

Spanish club members participated in many activities. Some of the members went on a ski trip on February 10th to Nubs Nob. The Spanish club members left 6 A.M. When they arrived there, they skied to 5 P.M. The members arrived back at the school around 10 P.M.

Spanish club members also sponsored a dance. The theme of the dance was "Fiesta Friday" and the DJ was "Almost Live." The cafeteria was decorated with balloons, streamers, and a gigantic mural showing things that were associated with Spanish - speaking countries.

The Spanish club also held Halloween and Christmas parties. The Halloween party was at the school. The members dressed up in costumes, ate snacks, and broke a pinata. The Christmas party was dinner at Casa Del Rey. In addition, the Spanish club caroled through the halls at Christmas time.

The seniors in Spanish club went to the Midland Center for the Arts to see works of Mexican artists. The Spanish III members also did a skit of Snow White for Foreign Language Day at SVSU.

MUSIC

CONCERT AND MARCHING BAND

"Our major strength was that we pull together when it counts and we make the music, not just play it", said Jennifer Turner. The band had two concerts this year. The favorite concert was the Christmas one because " everyone gets into the Christmas mood," said Karen Frost. The Spring concert was Thursday, May 10, 1990.

The band went to Toronto on Friday, May 18, 1990. For fund raisers members sold discount cards, candy; they also held a Rock-A-Thon in which they were sponsored to rock in a rocking chair for twenty-four hours.

Mr. Michelson directed the band. "The band is playing a lot better thanks to Mr. Mickelson", said Tricia Kirkbride. The band played well in the festival although they did not place in State.

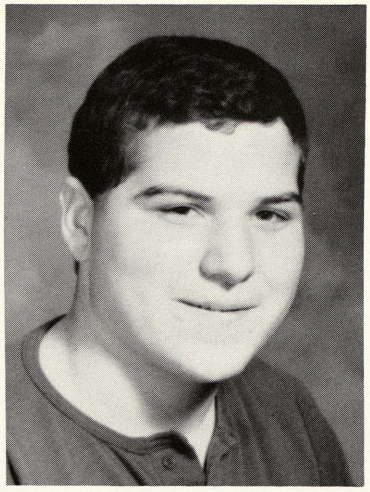
SERVICE CHARACTER, LEADERSHIP, AND SCHOLARSHIP

National Honor Society was a group of individuals who showed outstanding academic achievement coupled with a strong desire to help the community. According to the President, Pat Apsey, this meant that "since everyone is not a member of NHS, there is a lot of prestige involved. I feel it is a great honor because I know I am being rewarded for my past achievements."

Vice-President Julie Stolzenbach agreed. "Not just anyone is inducted into NHS. One must be outstanding in the areas of Leadership, Scholarship, Service, and Character! Without a good, solid character, the other three would fall by the wayside. A truly outstanding student exhibits this in school and in everyday life."

NHS participated in Toys For Tots, a St. Patrick's Day scavenger hunt, a Slave Day, and a car wash that helped to raise money for the gifts that the NHS gaves to the community. With NHS financial help, educational tools not made possible by scholastic funds were purchased for the betterment of the student body.

The Honor Society continued to benefit others and, in doing so, sustained itself. This was indeed the dogma that the NHS was founded for and maintained by. Its members depicted the very best of the community and continued their distinguished achievements far beyond the reaches of high school. — Lisa Abbott



In Memory of

John Reimann Schrems

June 13, 1973
June 4, 1990

We cannot see you but believe you are here,
We trust that you are happy and forget all your fears.
Your spirit is with us, your light of life is gone,
Your eyes have grown blind with anguish, but your laughter will rise with dawn.

Your spirit stays inside our mind,
Your living soul was ever so kind.
What answer can we give,
The question "Why?" will always live.

Your mind was set — you won't turn back,
With our thoughts, it's you we lack.
Friends and family grieving long,
No intention of what went wrong.

Your grief and sadness shall subside,
Pick up the pieces and abide.
Don't blame yourself my friend,
For his spirit here shall never end.

Painful thoughts shouldn't cause alarm,
Extended depression will do no harm.
Don't deny your pain — let it all come out,
We are here to help you; that's what life's about.

You can't expect to forget the past,
We all live long and hold fast.
His family strong with best intention
Willing and hard — his great resurrection.

A heart filled by wonder and fear,
Oh, how we wish you were still here!
With our praise we give you strength
Cure our sorrow, we say at length.

Help us be strong, we pray, O Lord —
Shield us from wrong with thy sword.
The Lord is now your strength and shield,
With his grace, we can be healed.

What he ignored was his denial
Hiding under his great big smile.
All has fallen in the past,
But in our hearts you shall last.

SV SPIRIT AND PRIDE SHINES THROUGH THE CHEERS

The Varsity Cheerleaders enjoyed a prosperous year. The cheerleaders also traveled to CMU, where they competed. The spirit of the cheerleaders was very enthusiastic. The fun the cheerleaders had was very obvious to everyone who watched them perform their routines. Heidi Burmeister said, "Being a cheerleader is a lot of fun, but practice can be hard at times." The spirit of the school really began to look in a brighter direction.

The JV Cheerleading squad had a good year. The cheerleaders enjoyed the games, they got to meet other cheerleaders from different schools. Melissa Skulley said, "I would like to be a Big 10 cheerleader in college." Many cheerleaders plan on going on to be cheerleaders in college and throughout the rest of their high school years. They liked to promote a lot of school spirit.

The Freshman Cheerleaders achieved a great season. The cheerleaders represented SV with great pride. They wanted to support the school through their high school years. With the support of all the cheerleaders Swan Valley had a great season in sports. — Stephanie Rausch

CHALLENGES FOR 89-90 POM-PON SQUAD

89-90 was a challenging one for SV pom-pon squad. With the introduction of eight new girl changes were inevitable. This year's team broke away from the more traditional style of pom-pon and went for more dance-inspired moves with the help of Bridget, Gretchen, Jennifer D., Lisa, and Alicia. Attitudes also changed. As hard as it may be to believe, there were no enemies in this year's squad. If difficulties occurred, they were talked out in group discussion and no one was left out. Ability was also a determining factor in the squad's success. All girls contributed something to the squad: Joanna with her sweetness, Cherie with her humor, Julie with her devotion; all had something to give.

Preparation for competition began at camp, a week-long excursion to SVSU where the team was taught such valuable skills as speed learning (learning that if you don't know a routine, it's best to be in back where you can at least hide behind someone taller than yourself), flexibility (how not to dismember your roommate after waking you up at seven in the morning so you could go to breakfast with her), endurance (going to practice even though you know you're about to die of heat stroke), and timing (the coveted ability of not having to count to eight for every contaigon because you know the routine SO well.

In competition the squad did well, placing high in the Regional competition and going on to State Championships. During the summer, the girls ran a children's clinic for aspiring girls ages 5 to 11. This activity turned out so well, that the girls were invited to perform at half-time for the J.V. basketball game during the Christmas season.

Overall, this year's squad had been one of the best. I have nothing but high hopes for them and the wish that they do well in their new season.

Miss you much, girls! — Lisa Abbott

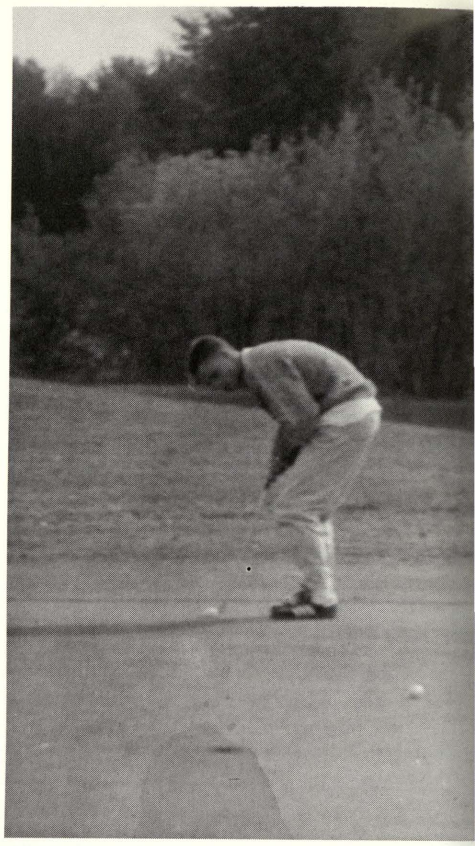
SWAN VALLEY GOLFERS

IN THE ROUGH



While most students were enjoying summer vacation, SV golf teams began training. Playing from eighteen to thirty-six holes, they started in July with practice everyday.

With the varsity placing eighth in the conference and eighteenth in the regional, Matt Wiktorowski stated, "Overall, the season could have been better. Next year we will have an older, more experienced team, and are expecting to place high in the conference.

The JV golf team had a 4-13 record for the season. The coach was Mr. Little. Mike York had the best average. Brian Kretz said, "We didn't do that badly."

The JV team had two juniors, Eric Callison and Jason Lotridge. Brian Kretz was the only sophomore. There were six freshmen Josh Mosher, Mike York, Christopher Dunkle, John Stajdl, Dan Marx, and Peter Mackley.

VIKING JUNIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL TEAM

UNDEFEATED WITH A PERFECT SEASON

A group of young men gathered at Swan Valley High School on August 9th, 1989, at 8:00a.m. They were determined to become the best J.V. Football team they possibly could.

Did they succeed? You bet! With an outstanding record of 9-0, they went undefeated.

"We worked as a team. All for one and one for all,"declared halfback Adam Clark.

"Although the opponents improved, as they do every year, we stuck together," added Aaron Demand.

The JV's played as a team with excellent defensive and offensive lines. "Strength helps us by allowing us to run the ball through our holes and getting the yards," replied Mark Stuart.

JV's brought down every team they faced with determination. They kept the opponents points very low with the tight defense. The JV's were an impressive team this year and hopefully it will continue in the following season. — Christine Pierce and Jill Marino

"We were two times twelve points behind but (we) caught up and won!" This was freshmen football Coach Bill Adams description of this season's greatest moment in a game against Frankenmuth. The Freshmen football team finished the season with a four win - four loss record. When asked how he would rate the year,Bill Adams said, "I think it was a good year because the boys learned how to win whether we were ahead on the scoreboard or not."

Bill Adams was head coach with Bill Guilford as assistant coach for Swan Valley's freshmen team. Jeff LaPorte, #37, said this about his coaches, "They all play their part in coaching. They do a good job. I like them both, they both discipline you and make you work hard."

Ending the season with spirits high, freshmen players commented on why school spirit was important. "It's important so everyone can fire up the football players," said Nathan Greene, #70.

Steve Gast,#76, added in that without school spirit "You would not look forward to school."

CoachBill Adams summarized the importance of playing on a school team by saying, "You learn pride in your school; you learn to work and play with other people. You win and lose as a team and you depend on one another." As a team, the freshmen had a well-played year. — Lexi Orr

VARSITY FOOTBALL TEAM IS REALLY

SOMETHING! SOMETHING!

1989 Varsity football season dawned in light of great expectations for this team that trained hard for upcoming events of fall. Starting the season right, Vikings tore apart Carrollton Cavaliers with a 19-0 score. However, fervor was short-lived. The next three games were tragic losses to the team, and even the 77-0 game against Richmond did little to cheer them. The remainder of home games were won. Though the season was tough, the team was tougher; it never lost sight of its goals and kept its pride intact through the darkest times. Pat Apsey had this to say about his fellow teammates, "Our coaches demand us to be disciplined. When they tell us to do something, they want it done immediately and without question. That's why this is such a good team; when something needs to be done, you don't have to worry about someone not doing his job because it isn't going to happen."

The strengths of the team greatly outweighed the weaknesses. As long as the team played for itself, and not for individual glory, it did not lose it's perspective. "Our first three games three games. Out team as a whole is a good one, there are no enemies on the team. We beat a lot of good schools, we just beat ourselves in the process," admits Jason Nowlin.

This year's team was a diverse one. It coupled the hard-earned knowledge of the seniors with the eager energy of the juniors to make a team that was hard to beat and even harder to be beat by. Only next year will they know for sure if their hard work and dedication paid off. — Lisa Abbott

THE NAME OF THE GAME

VICTORY! HUSTLE! DEFENSE!

Victory! Hustle! Determination! were keys for the Junior Varsity Basketball Team. As a result of hard work, the J.V. ended the season with a 16-4 record.

Teamwork was a major factor in the game. "In order to win, you have to play as a team. You can't be selfish." stated Sophomore Jenni Ludlum. Besides team work, point guards contributed to the game greatly. "The advantage of being a point guard is that we get to run the floor and call the plays. The disadvantage is we don't get to score as much as the other players," said Freshman Amy Vedrode. "We represent our team and when things get tough, we're expected to get the team cheered up," said Sarah Day.

Perhaps the most memorable game was against Valley Lutheran. The Vikings pulled a 46-40 victory after losing to them the first game. The basketball season brought great memories to players. "The best part of basketball was having the chance to show off your ability." said Stacey Schrems. — Julie LaMountain

Lady Vikes had Viking spirit. There were a few close games, like the Bullock Creek game. The Vikes lost by two points. The Vikes started out fresh this year with new Coach Tom Kennelly. "Mr. Kennelly really gave our team confidence," said Senior Cheri Thompson. Several teammates said that Mr. Kennelly emphasized defense and the games seemed more intense.

Awards given were: Second Team All Conference Julie La Mountain, Ann Mc Intryre, Melissa Wieneke, Honorable Mention Robin Murray, MIP Jenni Ludlum; and MVP Robin Murray. STAMINA, CONCENTRATION, AND STRATEGY

LEAD TO SUCCESS

The Swan Valley Wrestlers used STAMINA, CONCENTRATION, and STRATEGY to create their season record of 7-4. Although the team had its ups aand downs, its confidence stayed strong and led to seven powerful victories.

Every day the wrestlers practiced hard by running, jumping rope, doing push-ups, climbing rope, and lifting weights to better prepare themselves for their upcoming matches. ''Coach Massa and Coach Blain made our practices tough, but it pays off in the matches. They not only kept us in good physical shape, but they also drilled us on the wrestling moves we need to know,'' stated senior Mitch Uhlman.

Unlike other sports, wrestling is both a team and individual sport. ''It makes you rely on your own abilities and strengths,'' replied senior Mark Mc Coy. The diet also plays a tremendous role during the season by placing each wrestler into a weight division.

The Swan Valley Wrestlers made their school proud as four powerful wrestlers placed in Conference. Senior Mitch Uhlman captured first while John Zucksckwerdt, a freshman, took a second. Eric Blower and Steve Sanderson placed fourth.

Districts also went well, when it came to VIKING victories. Jason Adams and Mark McCoy both earned third place, during the time that John Zuckschwerdt achieved a fourth place.

Senior Jason Adams, one of the many outstanding S.V. Wrestlers, qualified second in the Regionals. Jason had a magnificent four year record of 119 wins, 28 loses and 2 ties. The 1989/90 Wrestling team had a great year. — Jill Marino and Julie LaMountain

A TEAM IS WHAT WE NEED!

PULL TOGETHER!!!

Teamwork:Teemwerk; Joint action by a group of people.

Without teamwork where would a team be? It certainly wouldn't be in the shoes of the Swan Valley Varsity Basketball Team whose effort was tremendous with a 500 record. "One strength of our team is the teamwork, there aren't any showoffs," exclaimed Mark Spence.

This bunch of guys worked great together and definitely had a lot of talent "To be a good basketball player you have to know the game and play your instincts. Hard work and dedication are some of the qualities a player should have," remarked Jay Waterman.

Some of the stronger players of the team were Jeremy Kaul with 239 points to wrap up the season, Jim Bakos with 268 points, Keith Hepinstall with 308, and Jay Waterman with 426 points for the season.

Awards went to point guard J.J. Waterman — Conference First Team, to forward Keith Hepinstall — Conference Second Team, to forward Jim Bakos — Conference Honorable Mention.

The JV Team also did quite well with 11 losses and 9 wins. The J.V. played superior this year, giving their time and concentration to basketball. Practices for the J.V. Team were long and hard, but well worth the effort. The team members had confidence in what they were pursueing, each and every game was another challenge to them. "Basketball was great and I loved it, I will definitely play again next year!" exclaimed Kevin Hepinstall.

Freshmen Basketball can be proud too, they ended their season also with a 500 record. Although they went through some hard times with their fellow team members, losing a few, they did extremely well!

The freshmen team appreciated the fans who attended the games. "When fans get pumped up that gets you pumped up and you play harder. It makes you proud to belong to your school," stated Brain Manial. Swan Valley can be proud of the basketball records this year! — Jill Marino

SET, SLAM

THANK YOU MA'AM!!!

"Team 10" lead the varisty volleyball team to a record of 21-9-5. The volleyball team discovered that it had to play as a team instead of individually. "Every position plays an important role in volleyball," stated Junior Shannon O Toole.

Practices consisted of a fifteen minute warm-up which included running, sit-ups, push ups and stamina drills. "You have to concentrate because you play like you practice," replied Sophomore Lori Merry.

The Vikings showed their best abilities at their Saturday tournaments. "I felt that we played better on Saturdays because it was just volleyball," stated Senior Cheri Thompson.

The Vikings ranked fifth in the conference. Although the girls were defeated in the finals against Birch Run at the conference tournament, the Vikings had a great year.

Chris Rudzinski was appointed the MIP, and Julie LaMountain was the MVP of the volleyball team. Ann McIntyre received Honorable Mention for All Conference, Julie LaMountain was picked for the second team and Cheri Thompson was picked for the firstst team All Conference. Julie LaMountain also was elected for the first team Class B Regionals. Ann McIntyre and Cheri Thompson were also elected for the second team Class B Regionals.

The volleyball team also participated in many volleyball tournaments on the weekend. "The greatest part of playing volleyball this year was when we won the Mitten Bay Tournament." stated Freshman Michelle Hughes.

In order to play a good game, the team had to set some kind of goal for the year. "Our first goal was to adjust to each other. Our next goal was to win as a team," said Sophomore Melissa Wieneke.

Volleyball is considered a team sport. Roles of passers, hitters, and setters are needed. " Our team had difficulty working together, but we tried our best to play as a team," replied Stacy Kennelly. — Julie LaMountain

BOYS TRACK TEAM STRIVES TO BE THE BEST

DOWN THREE, LAST LEG OF MILE RELAY, HEAD TO HEAD, Junior Mitch Gilbert outran Garber opponent to the finish line. The Vikes win 65-63. This was just one of the highlights of the 1990 boys track team coached by Chuck Koons. They placed third in conference behind Frankenmuth and Garber. This was the first time in six or seven years where the Vikes placed well at conference.

The team took sixth place at regionals. Senior Craig Halm qualified for state in the high jump, clearing 6'4''. In order to succeed in the season, the boys track team had to dedicate themselves to hard work and individual goals. The team would practice for an hour. They would work on the starting blocks, sprints, hand offs, and especially stamina.

The sprint relays were probably the most exciting to watch. The 400 relay made up by John Wolinski, Pat Apsey, Mitch Gilbert, Mike Niethammer, captured a time of 45:2. The 800 relay which consisted ofJohn Wolinski, Pat Apsey, Todd Rulapaugh, Mike Niethammer, ran a 1:34. Gilbert led the vikings in the 100 and 200 with the times of 11:2 and 22:85. Senior Craig Halm usually placed first in the 110 and 300 hurdles with the times of 15:4 and 41:7. Jose Medina ran the 800 run in 2:09. Freshman Chris Deibel ran the 3200 run in 11:05. The 1600 relay dominated the conference with a time of 3:33, which was made up by Pat Apsey, John Wolinski, Craig Halm, and Mitch Gilbert.

The field events added to Viking success. Senior Mitch Uhlman threw the shot 42'6'', whereas Junior Randy Mueller threw the discus 120'6''. Senior Todd Rulapaugh leaped 18'8'' in the long jump.

Senior Craig Halm was outstanding at the Korf Meet. He took first in the high jump, leaping 6'1'' and took fourth in the 110 hurdles. — Julie LaMountain

GIRLS TRACK TEAM — FEW

BUT PROUD!!

"WE WON'T WIN A TRACK MEET THIS YEAR!" stated Coach Cindy Lemaire. The team only consisted of six freshmen, two sophomores and two juniors who worked extremely hard to be competitive and to overrule the coach's statement.

At the beginning of the year, the team focused on the individuals events. The practices were for an hour, where the girls would ran three lap warm-up, sprints, Indian trails and a warm down. Field events were also practiced at that time.

Leading the way for the Vikes were Junior Julie LaMountain in the shotput 32'5", Becky Berry in the high jump 4'8" and low hurdles. Freshman Sara Wrona ran the 100, 200 and mile relay. Michelle Hughes ran the 800 and mile relay for part of the year due to injury. Joanna Creed, a freshman, ran the mile and mile relay. Amy Seaver ran the 400 1:09 and mile relay. Sophomore Dawn Montgomery also competed in the 100 and mile relay. Melissa Niethammer competited in the 400 and mile relay. Sophomore Lisa Varner jumped the long jump and ran the hurdles. best of it. Every girl, at some point in time, had a injury. Shin splints were the most common. Most of the relays were always being switched around because of injury. It was very difficult but the girls were successful thoughout the year. — Julie LaMountain

SV VARSITY SOFTBALL RANKED

TENTH IN STATE

Her palms are sweaty, and she is shaking at the knees, but determined to make a point. Suddenly she's still, there is no movement, but the cross look in her eyes. As she pulls her arm back she remains in eye-contact with her target. She releases the ball, and closes her eyes to wait for the reaction, when she opens them, her blurred vision sees the batter walk away. She had made her point.

Fine pitching was only one strong advantage of the Varsity Softball Team. Pitchers were Mindy Dennison, Stacy Kennelly, and Amy Verdrode. Playing the infield and the outfield our players were "ON THE BALL". Ann McIntyre and Lisa Verdrode were behind the plate doing the catching.

Outstanding achievements included winning the SV Tournament and placing second in the Hemlock Tournament. "At times we lack intensity, and we have a hard time getting ready for our games, but we have a good defense, good hitters, good pitching, and great attitudes!" exclaimed Mindy Dennison

AWARDS: All State — Ann McIntyre, Shannon O'Toole; All Region — Robin Murray; All Area — Stacy Kennelly, Ann McIntyre, Shannon O'Toole, Robin Murray; All League — Amy Vedrode, Holly Kenel, Amy Darland, Jenny Ludlum, Lisa Vedrode, Kennelly, McIntyre, O'Toole, Murray

JV Softball Team had many freshmen starting out new this year. The team worked together;its final record was 20-7, and won the Hemlock Tournament. "It a fun group, we had a great time, and it's kind of sad we won't be a team again next year." said Melissa Skulley. Coaching this year for the J.V.'s was Mr. Bill Adams, who also did a terrific job in his position. — Jill Marino

Pat

"I CAN'T BE DEAD! I'M ONLY 17!"

"Agony claws my mind. I am a statistic. When I first got here I felt very much alone. I was overwhelmed with grief, and expected to find sympathy.

"I found no sympathy. I saw only thousands of others whose bodies were as badly mangled as mine. I was given a number and placed in a category. The category was called 'Traffic Fatalities.'

"The day I died was an ordinary school day. How I wish I had taken the bus. But I was too cool for the bus. I remembered how I wheedled the car out of Mom. 'Special favor,' I pleaded. 'All the kids drive.' When the 2:50 bell rang, I threw my books in the locker. I was free until 8:40 tomorrow morning! I ran to the parking lot — excited at the thought of driving a car and being my own boss. Free!

"It doesn't matter how the accident happened. I was goofing off — going too fast. Taking crazy chances. But I was enjoying my freedom and having fun. The last thing I remember was passing an old lady who seemed to be going awfully slow. I heard a deafening crash and felt a terrific jolt. Glass and steel flew everywhere. My whole body seemed to be turning inside out. I heard myself scream.

"Suddenly, I awakened. It was very quiet. A police officer was standing over me. Then I saw a doctor. My body was mangled. I was saturated with blood. Pieces of jagged glass were sticking out all over. Strange that I couldn't feel anything. Hey, don't pull that sheet over my head! I can't be dead! I'm only 17! I've got a date tonight! I'm supposed to grow up and have a wonderful life! I haven't lived yet! I can't be dead!

"Later I was placed in a drawer. My folks had to identify me. Why did they have to see me like this? Why did I have to look at Mom's eyes when she faced the most terrible ordeal of her life? Dad suddenly looked like an old man. He told the man in charge, 'Yes — he is our son.'

"The funeral was a weird experience. I saw all my relatives and friends walk toward the casket. They passed by, one by one, and looked at me with the saddest eyes I've ever seen. Some of my buddies were crying. A few of the girls touched my hand and sobbed as they walked away.

"Please — somebody — wake me up! Get me out of here. I can't bear to see my Mom and Dad so broken up. My grandparents are so wracked with grief they can barely walk. My brother and sister are like zombies. They move like robots. In a daze. Everybody. No one can believe this, and I can't believe it either.

"Please, don't bury me! I'm not dead! I have a lot of living to do! I want to laugh and run again. I want to sing and dance. Please don't put me in the ground. I promise if you give me just one more chance, God, I'll be the most careful driver in the whole world. All I want is one more chance. Please, God, I'm only 17."

The freshman class of '93 would like to express our respect as the seniors of '90 leave our ship. We sincerely look up to them with hopes that they have shown us the powers we will use to continue the Viking spirit. Our goal is to reach ever higher each year assuring the wisdom we gain will benefit those who follow.

To the community, to our parents, teachers, and fellow classmates... work with us, support us, and we will do our best to make you proud.

Hail to the Class of '93!

YEAR IN REVIEW

1989

SEPTEMBER

After spending six months and $1 billion, Exxon shut down its clean up of the nation's worst oil spill . . . It was a show that changed television and spoke for a generation. NBC's comedy series launched its 15th season of Saturday Night Live . . . Voyager 2 ended its twelve-year grand tour of four planets and headed for the stars . . . Pete Rose takes a lifetime ban from the world of baseball. He goes out holding the record for hits — and off-field errors.

OCTOBER

A killer earthquake shook Northern California and ranked the third most lethal in U.S. history. It was measured 6.9 on the Richter scale . . . From the Caribbean to the Carolinas, Hurricane Hugo's path of destruction marked one of the fiercest storms of the decade . . . Friday the 13th stirred panic on Wall Street as the stock market posted its worst loss since the crash of 1987 . . .

NOVEMBER

After nearly three decades as the cold war's premier symbol, the Berlin wall crumbled to the ground with talk of unification between the two Germanys . . . A federal judge threw the book at Jim Bakker who received a 45-year prison term . . . Hip, hyperkinetic and hot, talk-show host Arsenio Hall rocked the boat in late-night TV according to the polls . . .

DECEMBER

In the stormy Mediterranean, George Bush and Mikhail Gorgachev held a "productive" first summit with proposals for changing the cold war to cooperation . . . From the Best Countdown on Radio, the top five songs were as follows: (1) Look Away — Chicago (2) My Prerogative — Bobby Brown (3) Every Rose Has It's Thorn — Poison (4) Straight Up — Paula Abdul (5) Miss You Much — Janet Jackson . . .

JANUARY

Manuel Antonio Noriega took sanctuary in the Vatican Embassy then surrendered to the U.S. military authorities in Panama City. If convicted on the fifteen counts already filed, he could face up to 210 years in prison and more than $1 million in fines . . . A televised trial of Romanian ruler Nicolae Ceausescu and his wife, ended in execution . . . Lithuania is in the process of leading a crusade for independence from Moscow, in order to break away from the U.S.S.R . . . Notre Dame had the toughest schedule, topped the polls most of the season, and won the biggest bowl victory . . .

FEBUARY

After 27 years, Nelson Mandela was released from prison, but was South Africa really ready, or able to take the road to a nonracial democratic society . . . The struggle for unification within the two Germanys was set in motion despite Moscow's mixed signals . . .

MARCH

As the U.S. Justice Department cracked down on polluters, Exxon Valdez, who was responsible for the Alaskan oil spill last year, was indicted on five criminal counts . . . After more than a decade of misery and civil war, Nicaragua produced a political miracle which included a free election that ended in the defeat of an overconfident Sandinista government . . . Washington's sanctions and support for the contras helped defeat the Sandinistas . . .

APRIL

Celebrities gathered for the grand opening of the Disney-MGM Studios Theme Park at Walt Disney World in Florida . . . Halston died at the age of 57 due to a deadly case of AIDS that took a devastating toll on the fashion industry . . . "Hey dude!" Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles made a big hit in Hollywood . . .

MAY

As Germany moves closer to unification, the U.S. and its allies began to renovate NATO . . . Known for creating the most widely seen TV program in the world, The Muppet Show, Jim Henson died at age 54 . . . One of the worlds greatest entertainers, Sammy Davis Jr. died at age 65 . . . Big attractions headed for the movies during the summer included Dick Tracy, Die Hard II, Days of Thunder, Gremlins II, and Total Recall . . .

JUNE

The Pistons won the NBA Champion title for their second consecutive year . . . Mikhail Gorbachev held a summit with George Bush. Before leaving, he visited Minnesota and San Francisco . . .
